Hi, Kristi.

Below are our responses to questions posed at the CFAC Community Liaison Panel meeting as well as additional sources of information about some of the community involvement options I discussed. We are currently exploring how we might provide the cost of community involvement activities.

Best regards,
Cynthia

Seventy-seven comments were submitted during the public comment period after the proposed listing of the Columbia Falls Aluminum Company Plant was published in the Federal Register. We can't characterize what proportion of the comments were favorable to adding the site to the National Priorities List. The public comment period has closed and comments are no longer being accepted on the regulations.gov Web site.
